There is some excellent competition here to compete against on all levels in all events. This will be another great test for us, and a fantastic chance to attain some PR's; as the level of competition will bring out the best in all of you. You have all been working so hard this season, and today is a great day for all of that hard work to pay off. I want you to go into this meet with great focus and to visualize beforehand how your event will proceed. Then, go out, put yourself in a good position, and let your body do what it does best. Don't hold anything back!
