Sectionals is here, and we are ready! You all have worked hard and dedicated yourselves to perform your best at this meet. I am so proud all that you have accomplished and how far you all have come this season, and we still have another step to go. We know the course well, and we are wearing the renowned white jerseys. You are all mentally strong warriors, and ready to push yourself to the max, as you remember that It's All In The STATE of Mind.

For those not competing, you all did a FANTASTIC job cheering on and supporting your teammates at regionals. It was great to see you all over at different parts of the course urging your teammates onward. Let's keep that spirit and enthusiasm going for this meet as your teammates will need you more than ever. Your teammates are going to be competing hard, and you should be cheering equally as hard!

Run Happy! Run Fast! Leave nothing left out on the course!
