OTHER MEET INFO:

Make sure to put your 1/8th in spikes back in for this meet!

At this point, we are many weeks into the season, and things have progressed very well. We should have a decent base of fitness, training, and experience from other practices and meets already this season. This is our first invitational, and we now need to start putting things together and compete at a high level. Batavia's facility along with the teams we are competing with should also provide an excellent opportunity for improvement and success. We have worked hard and trained well so far this season and been diligent with our training in practices and have showed some good support of teammates in previous meets. This is our first invitational and time for us to FLIP THE SWITCH!
