This meet is going to be incredible: 8 quality teams, quality individuals, along with a great facility are going to make for an amazing day of track and field. This is the inaugural DuKane Conference meet, and there are some great track and field teams in this new conference. The competition is going to be stellar with some great times, distances, and heights. Be ready to compete well at a high level. This meet is the culmination of our indoor season, and I know we are ready to show the DuKane Conference what Geneva is made of. Be confident and compete hard!
All for one and one for all!
